NU1
Yamaha Hybrid Piano

The Touch that Inspires

*Depending on region, a piano bench may not be supplied, or may differ from that shown here.

You may have a number of fortunate and life-changing encounters in your life. An encounter with music is perhaps a classic example.

The feeling of being inspired by music is a little like love. One day, great music inspires you so much that you become interested in music. And it may be that as your interest grows, your attraction turns into a craving to actually play a musical instrument.

Yamaha always hopes that your encounter with a piano is fortunate and life-changing. The NU1 hybrid piano was created by such a desire.

The touch of the keyboard of this hybrid piano built featuring the same configuration as the action of a real upright piano will inspire you with the belief that personally encountering such a musical instrument will make your and your family's entire lives colorful and rich.

Our hope is for you and your family to keep playing the NU1 piano and that your love for music grows each and every day of your life.

The authentic touch and elegant form of an upright piano, for a genuine piano experience

Introducing the NU1, a hybrid piano from Yamaha that combines the traditions of an acoustic instrument with the innovations of digital technology.

Featuring the same acoustic piano action used in Yamaha upright pianos, and a refined, compact design, the NU1 is the perfect choice to bring the renowned Yamaha sound to any home.

The superb natural feel of a real piano action

The touch and feel of a piano is vitally important to any pianist, whether they’re just starting out or playing at a professional level. The NU1 delivers an authentic playing experience that is almost indistinguishable from that of an acoustic piano. With the same action and natural wood keys as used in Yamaha’s finest upright pianos, the NU1 offers a realistic feel that is sure to inspire.

Experience the stunning sound of Yamaha’s premier concert grand piano in the comfort of your home

The NU1 features sound carefully sampled from one of the finest instruments that Yamaha has ever made—the CFX full concert grand piano. To complement its sparkling highs and full-bodied bass, the NU1 utilizes newly-developed acoustic technology unique to Yamaha to reproduce the characteristic resonance felt when playing an acoustic piano.

Alluring elegance that complements any room

The elegant simplicity of the NU1 blends effortlessly into any setting, adding an air of distinction without being imposing. Inheriting the superb sound and playability of the AvantGrand series of pianos, the NU1 offers the warmth and natural presence of an acoustic instrument in a stylish, compact form.
